Dear Restaurant Depot,
I am the treasure of The California Institute of Technology's AIChE chapter. We are planning a semi-formal dinner for early next year and are compiling a budget for the event. Last year we purchased our food items at your store. We are planning to have the same menu and would like to obtain the current prices for the items listed below. Would you be able to provide us with this information? It would be greatly appreciated if you note which items you no longer carry and the price of a similar item if the option is available.
